Carlos Hathcock: The White Feather

Carlos Hathcock was one of the most legendary snipers in US Marine Corps history. He is credited with over 300 confirmed kills during the Vietnam War, and he was awarded the Navy Cross for his actions.

Hathcock was known for his incredible marksmanship and his ability to operate independently behind enemy lines. He was also a master of camouflage and deception, and he often used a white feather to mark his targets.

One of Hathcock's most famous stories involves a time when he was surrounded by a group of North Vietnamese soldiers. He managed to escape by using his sniper rifle as a club and then swimming across a river to safety.

Chuck Mawhinney: The American Sniper

Chuck Mawhinney is another legendary sniper who served in the US Army during the Vietnam War. He is credited with over 100 confirmed kills, and he was awarded the Silver Star for his actions.

Mawhinney was known for his long-range shooting skills and his ability to operate in difficult terrain. He was also a skilled tracker and observer, and he often used his knowledge of the enemy to his advantage.

One of Mawhinney's most famous stories involves a time when he was tasked with taking out a group of enemy snipers who were terrorizing a US base. Mawhinney stalked the snipers for days, and he eventually managed to kill them all from a distance of over 1,000 yards.

Chris Kyle: The Navy SEAL Sniper

Chris Kyle was a US Navy SEAL sniper who served in the Iraq War. He is credited with over 250 confirmed kills, and he was awarded the Silver Star for his actions.

Kyle was known for his deadly accuracy and his ability to operate in close quarters. He was also a skilled trainer and mentor, and he helped to train many of the Navy's top snipers.

One of Kyle's most famous stories involves a time when he was tasked with protecting a group of civilians who were being evacuated from a war zone. Kyle used his sniper rifle to cover the civilians as they made their way to safety.

These are just a few of the many heroic sniper stories that are told in this book. These stories are a testament to the courage, skill, and determination of the men who have served as snipers in the US military. They are stories that will inspire and amaze you.
